(000) 000-0000

Our business NEVER sends unsolicited fax transmissions and does not appreciate receiving them from you. We consider it an invasion of our business and a waste of our time and materials.

YOU ARE ADVISED TO CEASE AND DESIST IMMEDIATELY. This will be your only warning, we will file a complaint with the FCC if this continues.

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 makes it unlawful for any person to use a computer or other electronic device, including fax machines, to send any message unless such message clearly contains in a margin at the top or bottom of each transmitted page or on the first page of the transmission, the date and time it is sent, an identification of the business or other entity, or other individual sending the message, and the telephone number of the sending machine or of such business, other entity, or individual.

It is unlawful to use said devices to transmit unsolicited advertising without the consent of the receiving party. In the event the sender has been notified to cease sending unsolicited advertising the receiving party may, at their discretion file a complaint with the FCC and will be allowed to exact payment from the sender in the amount of $250.00 per occurrence.
